Debbie Millman:

I'd like to invite Pablo and Doyald to the stage, please. I'd also like to invite the Corporate Leadership Awardees. I'd also like to invite the Fellows, past and present, and all of the gold Medal awardees over the years, to please join me on the stage now. While I have your attention, I want to thank you all again for coming. I want to thank you all for donating the twenty-plus thousand dollars. And I think we're also going to get some tally for the silent auction as well. It's your generosity that really makes all of this possible for all of us. [pause] Congratulations.

[Applause]
