$730/three employees $245/each additional employee

AIGA stimulates thinking about design, demonstrates the value of design and empowers the success of designers in their careers and communities.

By joining an organization of more than 22,000 members, your firm contributes to AIGA's mission to advance designing as a professional craft, strategic tool and vital cultural force.

Save more than 15 percent by purchasing a group membership for your employees rather than individual professional memberships. Your firm owns these memberships and can manage who is assigned them.

Member benefits are your benefits

Group membership for your employees provides opportunities for professional development, thought leadership, design inspiration, creative volunteerism and career advancement. Employees are kept informed of design trends and best practices and join a community to meet and interact with others. All of these benefits and more are an investment in your employees that comes back to your firm.

Designers who are actively involved in AIGA, its events and competitions bring attention to their firm. This helps in promoting the firm's work and attracting designers during recruitment periods.

At the individual level, AIGA members receive a number of tangible benefits that supplement those your firm offers. These include discounts on Shutterstock and the Adobe and Apple online stores, services from FedEx® and APDF, online tools like Blurb and Lynda.com, and conferences from AIGA and DMI; reduced fees for competition entries; discounted access to AIGA publications like the Design Business and Ethics series and F+W Media publications like Print, HOW and CMYK; health insurance; exclusive access to AIGA/Aquent Survey of Design Salaries and the AIGA National Design Center library in New York and more.

Designate one contact person at your firm to manage who belongs to the group, receives renewal invoices and communicates all roster changes to AIGA.

Fill in complete information about each member on page two. Be sure to include the contact person's information in this section as well.
